WHO WE ARE TODAY

"A little hidden gem on a hill with many huge hearts" aptly describes The British Home nestled in the attractive foothills of the San Gabriel Mountains in Sierra Madre. Today, The British Home reflects a typical retirement home populated by a diverse group of residents.

Our goal is: To provide an excellent retirement home in beautiful, comfortable surroundings with exceptional levels of loving care and compassion.

Our vision is: To remain a boutique enterprise with concierge service thereby continuing this excellence in residential care through critical evaluation and continuous improvement.

The British Home encompasses two and a half acres of well-tended gardens and landscape surrounding five separate cottages, with their own charm and story to tell; each with its own tastefully decorated lounge, modern kitchen and individual en-suite bedrooms with private baths.
